

THERE IS NO SINGLE CAUSE FOR DEPRESSION.

Rather it's a combination of stress, a person's vulnerability to developing depression, certain personality types and family history.

If you're worried about your own or someone else's mental health, start the conversation and access support. Visit www.staychatty.com.au/get-help for a list of services.

Source - The Black Dog Institute (2)